

Independent Careers Advisor Profile

Our school's Careers Adviser is Hayley Arthur. She is degree qualified with a Level 6 qualification in guidance and has over 25 years of experience of working with young people and has 10 years as a career's specialist providing careers advice and guidance to young people in schools and colleges. She works for Career Atlas, who are engaged by schools to deliver personal and independent career guidance. Her job is to support young people aged 11 to 19 to explore their career aspirations and to make informed decisions about subject choices, further and higher education, apprenticeships, and future employment. Hayley will ensure information is presented in an impartial manner, showing no bias or favouritism towards a particular institution, education, or work option. Hayley will always promote the best interests of the pupils supporting our pupils with their next steps decisions.
